

MEDICATE OR EDUCATE?

FREE Information Evening

Are you a teacher, parent or concerned relative of a child or young adult displaying these symptoms?

- Lack of concentration (except for things that interest them)?
- Impulsive by nature?
- Short attention span?
- Rebellious, defiant, disruptive or angry?
- Emotionally sensitive?
- Allergies, sinus, asthma?
- Doesn't conform to mainstream rules & authority?
- Can alternate between being sweet & loving to nasty & hurtful?
- Can be quite intuitive?
- Doesn't feel like they 'fit in'?

Join us for a free workshop to offer you support and knowledge about how you can help these troubled young people.

We will be covering several different modalities of health care from the caring staff at Health Align in their specialised fields.
